

My name is Anahí Carfi. I was "concertino violin" at the Theatre Alla Scala in Milano from 1973 to 2004. I had the opportunity to collaborate with Maestro José Escandell in several occasions and I consider him a great musician with high artistic quality. His sensibility and musical preparation are characteristics that make him an interesting conductor. I hope that in a very near future he can find an orchestra which gives him the possibility to show his musical knowledge.

Best regards,

Anahí Carfi
